Come out and join your Regional Business Team in St. Cloud, as we discuss the benefits of using Young Living Supplements in your life. Young Living Regional Business Director, Russell Cowley, will be leading the discussion on the benefits of having Essential Oils infused into your daily supplements offered from Young Living. We look forward to seeing many of you there and hearing from you first hand how these products have changed your life. Some of the products that will be featured at this event are Inner Defense, Omega Blue and of course NingXia Red.

We will be offering incredible enrollment incentives for new members, in addition to a variety of different products for existing members. Please bring your family and friends to this great event. We look forward to seeing you soon!
